

ISL 102 : Elective/ Islamic studies I

This course will introduce Islamic culture and stresses its importance and contribution to humanity. It addresses Sharia Law in terms of sources, underpinnings, and objectives. It also enhances students' faith in its viability and all-inclusiveness. The course counts as the social science component of the university General Education requirements.

Credits 2