

Governing

The University Council is the major internal governance body of the University. The Council acts in legislative and advisory roles regarding university policies involving faculty and students, academic programs and planning, and University concerns.