

Registration Policies

- Student is responsible for registering the correct courses on time following the study plan, receiving academic advice from the academic advisor is recommended.
- Student will not be allowed to attend classes without being officially registered for them; student cannot receive credit for courses in which he/she is not registered for.
- Students are not allowed to register or add courses retroactively.
- The University reserves the right to cancel class/section, change instructor/class time and classroom faculty assignments, and does not guarantee seats in any class.