

ACC 415 : Financial Statement Analysis & Valuation

Valuation and performance are an important part of investment decisions which heavily relies on the information in financial statements. This course will familiarize students with the framework of analysis and valuation using financial statements and focus on how to extract information from financial statements and use that data for valuation.

Credits 3

Prerequisite Courses

FIN 201

ACC 301