

FIN 450 : Financial Trading Strategies

This course aims to introduce students to the global markets including international stock markets and indices, commodities, and currencies in the spot market. Students will learn the difference between fundamental and technical analysis and be able to make trading decisions. Moreover, the course provides the students with basic chart reading and analysis.

Credits 3

Core Requirement

BEC

Prerequisite Courses

FIN 201