

MGT 230 : Organizational Behavior

This course provides a comprehensive overview of the applied behavioral sciences to the study of people at work in organizations. It covers the fundamentals of individual and group behavior and topics such as motivation, power and politics, and conflict and negotiations. It will also provide students with some experiential opportunities to develop leadership skills.

Credits 3

Core Requirement

BCC

Prerequisites

MGT 210, MAT 111, ENG 112