

MGT 301 : Business Law

This course focuses on the essential international principles of business law including contracts, negotiable instruments, banking law, insurance, agency and powers of attorney, forms of business organization, employment, criminal law and torts, intellectual property, and tax. These concepts will be introduced in assigned readings and in brief lectures by the instructor, and then explored by students in general discussion and other formats.

Credits 3

Core Requirement

BCC

Prerequisite Courses

MGT 201

MGT 210

MGT 230