

MGT 393 : Managing Organizational Change

This course introduces the students to the challenges of managing change inside the organization. It helps them establish an in-depth understanding of how to manage organizational change as a systematic approach and equips them with tools for implementing strategic change across the organization. Students will also learn about challenges and opportunities associated with change.

Credits 3

Core Requirement

MCC in HRM and EFB

Prerequisite Courses

MGT 230