

MGT 420 : Human Performance Improvement

This is a senior course that focuses on managing people's performance in the workplace, contributing to organizational performance, and the essential skills that HRM practitioners and line managers need for internal consulting to design, facilitate, implement and evaluate performance interventions at a group (e.g. departmental) and organizational level.

Credits 3

Core Requirement

BEC

Prerequisite Courses

MGT 350