

MGT 443 : Comparative Management

This course provides a comprehensive foundation for understanding, interacting, and successfully managing today's multinational and multicultural organizations. It covers a wide range of issues ranging from assessing the international environment, exploring various cultures and communication methods, international negotiations and decision making to the creation of a global management team and international strategy formulation and execution.

Credits 3

Core Requirement

MCC in HRM

Prerequisite Courses

MGT 230