

OPM 450 : Management of Innovation

The course empowers students to deliver breakthrough innovations successfully into the world of business. The students explore techniques that seek major growth through innovations in products, services, and business models and develop the skills and gain the knowledge required to bring these innovations successfully to market. Business cases and projects are used to enhance the learning experience.

Credits 3

Core Requirement

MCC

Prerequisite Courses

OPM 330