

ME 205 : Introduction to Computer Aided Design

The course teaches computer-aided design of mechanical systems, and includes the preliminary design, analysis, and documentation of a mechanical system. This will include first and third angle projections, solid modeling and the use of commercially available CAD software.

Credits 3

Lab Hours 0

Lecture Hours 3

Tutoring Hours 0

Prerequisites

none

Corequisites

none