

ACC 495 : Accounting Theory and contemporary Issues

This course introduces students to the general nature of accounting theory and its function in relation to problems confronting the accounting profession. Accounting practices including accounting rules, principles and processes are examined within the context of contemporary theoretical perspectives and socio-political behaviors of market participants.

Credits

3

Core Requirement

BEC

Prerequisite Courses

ACC 302