

ARB 112 : Arabic Language II

Focuses on developing students' Arabic language skills to higher proficiency levels in various domains, including essay writing, and conversation in Standard Arabic. The course also introduces the different literary schools and their respective characteristics. It counts as a humanities course in the university's General Education Requirements.

Credits 2

Prerequisite Courses

ARB 101