

ARE 313 : Electrical Installations

Electrical Installations abound in any building. The Architecture Engineer is expected to have knowledge of the design, variety and maintenance of these Electrical Installations. This course will give the student a foundation course in power generation, distribution and control with respect to electrical installations in buildings.

Credits

3

Lab Hours

0

Lecture Hours

3

Tutoring Hours

0

Prerequisites

EE 207

Corequisites

none